

Justicia en movimiento. Cambios en los gobiernos indígenas en los procesos de migración.

Antropólogo
Yerko Castro Neira
yerkomx@yahoo.com.mx

Yerko Castro Neira has worked in different anthropological areas such as political and legal anthropology and transnational studies for many years. He has been a professor of anthropology in the Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana and he has worked in the program of investigation in North American Transnational Communities of this University. His areas of research include globalization, transnational communities, nation states, human rights, law and justice. Currently, Yerko is writing his Ph.D. dissertation in Social Anthropology.